Public Health Director

TO: Board of Supervisors

FROM: Gregory Thomas, M.D., M.P.H., Health Officer/Public Health Administrator

DATE: March 21, 2006

SUBJECT: Appointment of the Consumer Representatives to the Board of Directors of the Emergency Medical Services Agency, Incorporated

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board reappoint Robert Neumann and David Keil to fill two-year terms as Consumer representatives on the Emergency Medical Services Agency, Inc. Board of Directors.

Discussion

The County Board of Supervisors has the ultimate authority and responsibility, through the Health Agency, for the regulation and administration of all aspects of the Emergency Medical Services Program. The County contracts with the San Luis Obispo County Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Agency, Inc. to provide certain functions of EMS oversight, including oversight of ambulance service delivery.

The Board of Supervisors appoints three representatives to the EMS Agency, Inc Board of Directors: two consumer representatives and one County government representative. The two consumer representatives, Robert Neumann and David Keil, have served one term since their appointment in 2004. It is recommended that Robert Neumann and David Keil each be reappointed to fill a second two-year term beginning March 21, 2006. The two-year terms will run from March 21, 2006 to February 1, 2008.

Robert Neumann worked for 34 years as a firefighter and has also worked as a volunteer as the County's Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) coordinator. David Keil has 11 years experience as an USAF Officer/Emergency Actions Officer and served over 10 years as the County Office of Education representative at the County EOC and Disaster Council. Mr. Neumann and Mr. Keil would both like to continue to serve as consumer representatives.

Other Agency Involvement/Impact

The County Clerk Recorder's Office has verified that all posting requirements have been met.
